-FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE-

Patrick Fesler Earns Certified Master Inspector® Designation

RATHDRUM, Idaho. (Sept. 19, 2013)—ACCENT Home Inspection Solutions is pleased to announce that Patrick Fesler is now credentialed as a Certified Master Inspector (CMI)®, which is the inspection industry's top professional designation.

The Master Inspector Certification Board has awarded the Certified Master Inspector (CMI)® designation to Mr. Fesler for demonstrating the highest level of competency by completing 1,000 fee-paid inspections and/or hours of inspection-related Continuing Education, for having been in the inspection business for at least three years, for abiding by the industry's toughest Code of Ethics, and for agreeing to periodic background checks.

Mr. Fesler wishes to thank his clients and colleagues for their continued support of Accent Home Inspections.

We are Accent, certified by the National Association of Home Inspectors (NAHI). As your North Idaho Home Inspection Professionals, we are here to serve your real estate buying, selling and investment needs before and after your report is finalized! Hiring a certified home inspector is smart, but hiring a certified Inspector that is also a licensed catastrophe adjuster and a private investigator is just efficient business. Our overly qualified inspectors are there to assist you to make sound, educated real estate decisions. We are here for you even after your purchase for help, support, solutions, and advice.
